Arrow Capital Partners expands investment management team in Asia-Pacific with the appointment of Jason Risorto

Arrow Capital Partners, the specialist investor, developer and manager of real estate in Europe and Asia-Pacific, has appointed Jason Risorto as executive of its Asia-Pacific investment management team.

Jason will focus on managing and expanding some of Arrow's existing joint ventures across Asia Pacific, as well as driving new strategies forward across the region. He will be based in Sydney, reporting to Kurt Wilkinson, Partner.

Jason joins Arrow from New York-based The Durst Organization, where he was Director of Durst Ventures and Real Estate Transactions. In this role, he was responsible for leading and managing a portfolio of venture capital, public equity and fund investments and played a pivotal role in handling property acquisitions, dispositions and strategic initiatives. Prior to this, Jason held roles at AmTrust Realty, UBS and JP Morgan.

Commenting on the appointment, Kurt Wilkinson, Partner at Arrow Capital Partners, said: "We are delighted to welcome Jason to the Arrow team. He brings a wealth of experience with him across a broad range of asset classes, having worked on real estate investment, development, financing and asset management throughout his career. We look forward to having him onboard as we continue to evolve the business".

A specialist investor, developer and manager of real estate, Arrow Capital Partners targets equity and debt opportunities, specialising in cross-border transactions where it can use its platform and balance sheet to invest with US and Asia-Pacific investors into Europe, as well as European and US investors into the Asia-Pacific region. Arrow has a team of 60, globally based out of 12 countries.
